Advance Facials

At first glance, Aqua facial treatments and HydraFacial treatments appear to be the same. They exfoliate the skin, extract pores, and hydrate by using infused serums. Both options are good on a variety of skin types, help to even skin tone, smooth wrinkles, improve the look of your pores, and can reduce acne. But that's where the similarities seem to come to an end. These two treatments are different in a few ways, but most significant is the contrast in terms of quality and quantity of results. Such As: Personalized for Success, Improved Level of Volume in Your Skin, Continual Cell Turn-Over, Improved and Vibrant Skin Texture & Tone, Helps Sun Damaged Skin, Reduces or Eliminates Acne & Enhanced Skin Around Eyes.

Body Sculpting & Cryolipolysis (Fat Freeze)

Cryolipolysis, commonly referred to as fat freezing, is a nonsurgical fat reduction procedure that uses cold temperature to reduce fat deposits in certain areas of the body. The procedure is designed to reduce localized fat deposits or bulges that do not respond to diet and exercise. The technique is based on the finding that fat cells are more susceptible to damage from cold temperatures than other cells, such as skin cells. The cold temperature injures the fat cells. The injury triggers an inflammatory response by the body, which results in the death of the fat cells. Macrophages, a type of white blood cells and part of the body's immune system, is "called to the injury location," to rid the dead fat cells and debris from the body.
